After this child has been baptized you are at all times to remember him/her in your prayers, put him/her in mind of his/her Baptism, and as much as in you lies, give your counsel and aid that s/he be brought up in the true knowledge of worship of God and be taught the Ten Commandments, the Creed, and the Lord's Prayer; and that as s/he grows in years, you place in his/her hands the Holy Scriptures, bring him/her to the services of God's house, and provide for his/her further instruction in the Christian faith, that s/he come to the Sacrament of Christ's Body and Blood and thus, abiding in his/her baptismal grace and in communion with the Church, s/he may grow up to lead a godly life to the praise and honor of Jesus Christ. This, then, do you intend gladly and willingly to do?

Before God, I declare my intention that to the best of my ability I will strive to carry out these spiritual obligations toward my child.
